Program Summary:
Ohio Northern University offers a unique opportunity to study in South Korea through an exchange program with Hanyang University. ONU students can apply through their college to be selected for the fellowships which include tuition, housing, cultural excursions in Seoul, orientations at Hanyang and at ONU, and a portion of the airfare. Three students from each undergraduate college will be selected for this fellowship. Since 2007 when the exchange began, more than 40 ONU students have studied at Hanyang University and six students from Hanyang University are on ONU’s campus each year.

The four-week ONU summer study program at Hanyang University in Seoul, South Korea is one of the most affordable study abroad options a student can find. The program offers a wide range of courses including art, business, cultural studies, dance, engineering, humanities, international relations, Korean language and culture, literature, political science, science, social sciences, and many more that can be transferred back to ONU for credit. All courses are taught in English. (classes will be offered June 26–July 27, 2014)

About Hanyang University: Hanyang University is one of the most prestigious private universities in South Korea, in particular, Hanyang’s School of Engineering which is one of the oldest engineering schools in Korea. The main campus of Hanyang University is in a central location within Seoul. Hanyang University has over 36,000 students on its two campuses, including 9,400 graduate students in 20 Colleges.

Courses at Hanyang: Generally over 30 different courses from a wide range of disciplines are offered at Hanyang University during the summer program. These include courses in Business, Sciences, Korean Culture, History, Korean Language, Political Science, Communications, Sports, Design, and International Relations. All courses are taught in English and will be taken with other exchange students and Hanyang University students. ONU students should plan to enroll in two courses for 6 semester hours of credit.

Classes generally meet on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Wednesdays are open for homework, day trips arranged by instructors and personal sightseeing with your new friends. Students register for six credit hours during the summer at ONU and pay only the administrative fee of $46 per credit hour for up to 9 credits of course work. Students generally take only six credits to allow time for exploring Korea.

Post-Study Fellowship requirement: Students selected for the fellowships are required to share their experience with students at ONU when they return to campus in the fall. Students will present a brief proposal to their dean outlining the idea for their presentation or project. Students should complete their fellowship requirement during the fall semester.

Pre-departure Orientation: After fellowship recipients are selected, three comprehensive orientation sessions will be scheduled on the ONU campus to help students prepare for their time in S. Korea. Any other students who are planning to participate in the Hanyang Summer program or Dankook University’s summer program may join the sessions. In addition to reviewing general orientation information, there will be opportunities to meet students who attended the summer program last year as well as currently enrolled students who are from Korea.

Attendance at AASU meeting: Between your selection as a fellow and the end of spring semester, you will be invited to attend the Asian American Student Union (AASU) meetings. You are required to attend at least one AASU meeting before the end of the school year. Generally they meet every other Tuesday night at 6pm. They are planning to hold a special gathering to introduce you to the students in the group. Please watch for their announcement or invitation.

Journaling: As part of your fellowship, you should plan to keep track of your experiences and impressions in a journal. This can be a paper journal, an electronic document or a blog. We will discuss this in orientation.
Blogs and other video postings: ONU is very interested in your adventure and how you convey your experience to those not traveling with you to Korea. If you are interested in blogging or video blogging about your trip, please let Brian Keas in the study abroad office know.

Hanyang Students: A very unique feature of this program compared to others is the participation in the summer program by full-time Korean students attending Hanyang U. Hanyang students who will be going overseas in the fall are required to participate in the summer classes with the visiting students. This has been an excellent way for ONU students to connect with Korean students who are interested in showing them around the city and trying new foods and adventures. The tables are turned when the Korean students then arrive at ONU in the fall.

Logistical Information

Application to Hanyang: Students who are selected for the fellowship will be given instructions about how to apply to Hanyang University’s summer program. Students should only do this after they have been selected for the fellowship. Students will also be informed about the pre-departure orientation meetings that will cover a wide range of topics to assist students in preparing to depart for Korea.

Meal options:

Students can eat in the Hanyang University cafeteria for the equivalent of $2.00 per meal. Low cost meals can be found at the many restaurants and food stands near campus. This is a metropolitan city with numerous meal options with a wide range of price ranges from very low to very expensive! Students should budget what they can afford to spend. Average meal costs are similar or slightly below the cost of meals in the US.

Housing: Hanyang has very nice, air conditioned dormitories on its campus for visiting summer students. A cafeteria is located in the men’s dormitory. Each room in the dormitories has a bathroom, wireless internet, a desk, twin size beds, and are shared by two people.

Insurance:

OUN students traveling abroad are required to have medical insurance as well as medical evacuation and repatriation insurance (The medical evacuation and repatriation insurance is provided by ONU and you should confirm whether your health insurance covers international travel). If the student needs additional coverage beyond these, ONU offers a health insurance for the summer through the Controller’s office. The cost will be confirmed from the Controller’s office later.

Excursions: In past years, the International Office at Hanyang has taken students each weekend on excursions. ONU students are required to participate in these excursions. Past excursions have been to the Korean Folk Village, Caribbean Bay and Everland Amusement and Water Park, Gyeongbok Palace, and the ever popular Boryeong Mud Festival. Students can choose on their own to visit all of the other historic and cultural sites in the city or beyond.

Transportation from the Airport: Students are advised to use the airport pickup service Hanyang University provides. The cost is approximately $40 each way. Arrangements should be made at least a few weeks before departure. Hanyang also provides transportation to the airport for the same fee if arrangements are made in advance.

Safety: Seoul is a very safe, modern city, made up of many smaller “neighborhoods” or districts. People in Seoul are very friendly and willing to help visitors to their city. However, students should take precautions not to travel alone at night as they would in any metropolitan city. Taxis are readily available throughout the city and are quite reasonably priced.
